Subject: REVOCATION of Anaheim General Hospital's Paramedic Receiving Center Designation

Orange County Emergency Medical Services (OCEMS) is immediately revoking the Paramedic Receiving Center (PRC) designation of Anaheim General Hospital. This revocation is done in the interest of public health and safety and is related to the hospital's inability to sustain emergency communication functions.

Effective immediately, all ambulance transported EMS patients must not be transported to Anaheim General Hospital

Pending an evaluation by the California Department of Public Health, the hospital remains open as a Basic Emergency Department.

If you have any questions about this revocation, please contact us at 714-834-3500. During non-business hours, please contact the Duty Officer at 714-415-8980.

Sincerely,

Tammi McConnell, RN, MSN
