Subject: Emergency Medical Services Coordinator Announcement

Orange County Emergency Medical Services (OCEMS) is pleased to introduce Meng Chung as the OCEMS Basic Life Support (BLS) Coordinator. Meng will have primary responsibility for monitoring and addressing all aspects of the basic life support system and related issues, including ambulance licensing, training programs, prehospital continuing education providers and EMT certification.

Meng has over 6 years of experience as an EMT and his background includes operational management of an ambulance service provider, implementation of electronic data management systems and personnel management. In his role as EMS Specialist for OCEMS, Meng has helped to define, create and implement operational processes to management personnel and ambulance licensing. Meng has completed his Bachelor's Degree in Health Science with a focus on public health education at California State University San Bernardino and earned his National Registry EMT-P.
